Name : Ahmed Khaled Mahmoud
Program : Software Engineering

Course :   Web design and development

True or False

1. An <input type="radio"> allows users to select multiple options. F

2. An <input type="hidden"> field is visible to users when the form is displayed. F

3. The <textarea> element is used for multi-line text input. T

4. The <nav> element is used to define navigation links within a document. T

5. The character entity © represents the registered F

----

1. Which attribute is used to specify the URL where the form data will be sent?
    A. method
    B. action
    C. target
    D. enctype

2. What does the <label> tag do in an HTML form?
    A. It adds a title to the form.
    B. It groups related elements.
    C. It provides a user-friendly description for an input element.
    D. It submits the form.

3. What does the <fieldset> tag do in an HTML form?
    A. Creates a clickable button.
    B. Groups related elements within a form.
    C. Specifies the form's action.
    D. Defines a text area.

4. Which HTML5 element is used to create a footer for a document or section?
    A. <aside>
    B. <footer>
    C. <section>
    D. <nav>

5. What is the HTML character entity for the less-than sign (<)?
    A. <
    B. &less;
    C. &lt_sign;
    D. &lower;